NEW WAGE SCALE GOES INTO EFFECT AT ALBANY SHOPS; RECEIVE BACK TIME

Increased Rate to Date Back to May 1st, According to Press Reports.

$1800 CHECK IS GIVEN TO ONE LOCAL WORKER

Is Not Known Just When All the Claims Will Be Settled.

Beginning yesterday the new wage scale, according to the National R. R. administration agreement with the railroad shop crafts, went into effect at the local railroad shops. The new scale is retroactive from May 1 of this year according to press reports. This means, that the mechanics and mechanic's helpers at least will each get around $50.00 backtime, the exact amounts dependent on the amount of straight time and over time each worker has put in since May 1.

The old scale per hour for mechanics was 68 cents per hour, while the new scale is 72 cents per hour according to President Wilson's recommendation. While the pay rolls will not show 72 cents for mechanics and about 49 cents per hour for helpers, until the last of this month, this class of labor has practically been getting 72 cents per hour since May 1, as the back time checks will demonstrate. Just when the back time will be paid, according to reports, will depend on how quickly the clerical force can foot up the amounts due each man.

It is expected that this task will be accomplished this time much more quickly than last year, as the different workers are so much better classified now than they were a year ago.

Large Checks Paid.
In addition to the big increase in the pay roll of the local shops occasioned by the increase in the pay per hour, within the last few days quite a large number of the shopmen have received large back time checks. This is due to re-classification. For instance, where men have drawn a straight salary for certain jobs, but were later classified, as due to receive mechanics pay at the regular rate per hour with overtime. Such men have been known within the last few days to have drawn as high as $1,800.00 back pay. Still another advance is reported, men who get what is termed a "differential," will now receive 77 cents per hour, or five cents advance over the pay per hour of regular mechanics. There are quite a number in this class, though not enough to materially increase the pay roll.

Due to a special effort of the railroad administration to increase the output of freight cars, a large contingent of the carmen are now working an hour's overtime each day.

DR. H. R. THOMPSON NEARLY LOSES LIFE

Dr. H. R. Thompson, well known as secretary of the local Y. M. C. A., but later secretary of the "Y" for the government at Lowell Station, near Sheffield, nearly lost his life when fire destroyed the administration building there yesterday. Mrs. Thompson and the children also narrowly escaped injury, being taken from the upper story of the blazing building with the use of ladders.

The loss is estimated at $12,000. The fire is said to have been started by the explosion of an oil heater used in the room of one of the boarders, who left the stove lighted while he went to breakfast.

Potato Turns Turtle

When is a potato not a potato? When it turns turtle.
At least that is the answer of J. F. Weaver, of the Albany Broom Company, to the question propounded. Mr. Weaver was today exhibiting a sweet potato, dug from his patch on East Moulton street, that has the outlines of a turtle, ringed neck and all. It is a rare freak of the vegetable world, and will be placed on display in some local show window.

ELECTION IS ASKED BY CITIZENS TODAY ON MERGER ISSUE

Petitions signed by citizens of both Albany and Decatur and seeking an election on consolidation of the two cities were filed in the office of Probate Judge Troup this afternoon. The petitions, it is claimed by pro-consolidationists, contain many more than the number of signatures necessary under the Lynne bill, to authorize the probate judge to call the election.

The Lynne bill requires that when the petitions are presented to the probate judge, within a period of ten days, he shall within five days of the presentation of the last of said petitions publish a notice, setting a date for the hearing on each of such petitions, which date shall not be less than ten days nor more than twenty days after the filing of the last of such petitions, naming a separate date for the hearing of each petition.

The law further provides that after these public hearings if the probate judge determines that the petitions have received the requisite number of qualified signers, he shall publish a notice not less than 12 nor more than 30 days from the date of the latest hearing for an election in both of said cities.

The petitions have been quietly circulated during the last ten days and were freely signed.

BRITISH SAW A RED CROSS FLAG; THOUGHT IT WHITE

(International News Service.)
WITH THE BRITISH FLEET in the Baltic, Oct. 20, via London, Oct. 21.—How the world was misled into believing the white flag had been raised over the great fortress of Kronstadt by the Bolshevik defenders last Friday was explained today. A Red Cross flag, which was evidently home-made, was raised over a hospital and persons on shipboard, looking at it through the haze, thought it was the white flag of surrender (the British war office announced on Saturday it had received a report that a white flag had been raised there.) General Yadenick's army now is facing the gate of Petrograd. Admiral Cowan, of the British fleet, has arranged to seize Petrograd. British airmen are daily bombing the Bolsheviks at Krasnaya.

NON-UNION STREET CAR MEN ATTACKED BY SYMPATHIZERS OF STRIKERS.

(International News Service.)
GADSDEN, Oct. 21.—M. L. Murray, of Scottsboro, a non-union street car worker, is in a local hospital in a serious condition and a man named Taylor, of Gadsden, is suffering from a fractured skull as the result of a clash last night between non-union street car workers and a group said to be union sympathizers. Murray was shot through the lung. About 25 shots were fired. The police are investigating but no arrests have been made yet.

HARBOR TRAFFIC STILL PARALYZED

EFFORTS TO END LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE HAVE PROVED FUTILE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—With harbor traffic still paralyzed despite the efforts of federal, state and municipal government representatives to end the tie-up, the following were the main developments in the situation today: 1—Private shipping companies, led by their international mercantile marine, again threatened to use strike breakers during the day, under police protection, to enable ocean-going freighters to depart; 2—Dissensions have broken out in the ranks of the striking longshoremen over the presence of Paul Zactareli, former president of the Longshoremen's union, on Secretary of Labor Wilson's conciliation commission.

ALBANY HIGH WINS FROM FLORENCE

The Purple and Gold football team of the Albany high school returned early this morning from Florence with another scalp hanging to their belts. The local squad defeated Florence high yesterday afternoon on the latter's field 12 to 7 in a warmly contested fray.

Again the plunging of Alexander and Royer who made the locals touchdowns proved too much for their opponents and coupled with excellent forward passing, an offensive feature Coach Templeton is devoting much time to, the locals got away to an early start and never were headed.

In the first quarter the Purple and Gold scored a touchdown following a long forward pass, successfully completed. Again in the third the locals put over another on a line buck. Florence counted her touchdown in the last minute of play, after recovering an Albany fumble, Bennett going over.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The official bulletin bearing upon the President's condition, issued this morning by Dr. Grayson, was as follows: "The President's prostatic condition remains as before. Chemical examination of the blood shows the kidneys to be functioning normally. He did not sleep so well last night, but showed no signs of fatigue this morning."

COMMITTEES ARE NAMED FOR THE Y DRIVE TO ENLARGE SCOPE OF LABOR

County-Wide Campaign Launched at Meeting Held Last Night.

ADDRESSES ARE MADE BY LEADERS IN WORK

Supper is Served by Ladies Auxiliary of Commerce Board

Y. M. C. A. COMMITTEEMEN TO WORK THE CITIES

Decatur: T. M. Dix, W. H. Aycock, W. E. Roper, Clyde Hendrix, Rev. W. N. Sholl.

East side of Second Ave., South of Johnson street: C. L. Saunders, H. L. Spencer.

East side of Second avenue, North of Johnson street: R. C. Gardner and A. H. Hoff.

West side of Second avenue, South of Johnson street: J. F. Lovin and R. E. Chandler.

West side of Second avenue, North of Johnson street: Chas. Rountree and Marvin Rankin.

South Albany: E. R. Wolf, A. C. Dillehay, J. H. Putman.

The shop workers will consist of the members of the board of management of the Association who are now working there, with the addition of Geo. C. Hise and E. F. Wilson. The shop men who are on the board of management are as follows: C. W. Matthews, Master Mechanic; H. C. Hutchison, J. H. Clift, W. R. McCluskey, H. G. Thornhill and E. R. Wolf.

It was ordered by the meeting that each committeeman was at liberty to add any names he might choose to his list.

(By J. E. Blair.)

The announced meeting held last night, for the purpose of launching the county wide campaign for a larger Y. M. C. A. program next year was held at the Board of Commerce rooms according to appointment.

After an excellent supper, served by the Woman's Auxiliary of the Board, A. H. Hoff, state committeeman of the association, made a short address, outlining the plans for the campaign.

G. K. Roper, International R. R. Y. M. C. A. secretary who was expected to speak first last night, owing to having missed train connections was not present. A stirring message was delivered by Dr. W. B. Holmes, State Industrial secretary for the association. The speaker said in opening: "We are called upon, gentlemen, to do bigger things and do them better than ever before. The old order is passing. But we are building on a firmer and sure foundation. "The Y. M. C. A. has begun a definite Christian work that will reach out not only to aid the city and industrial boys, but to aid the rural districts and touch the life of those boys and men."

As to the race problem, Dr. Holmes told of a number of instances throughout the state where committees appointed of prominent men of both races, were keeping down possible race riots.

It was explained that the funds asked were not to be used in Y. M. C. A. buildings but for sending speakers and organizers for work among country boys and men, among industrial workers, among the schools and colleges, and among the negroes of the state.

RAILWAY MEN ASKED HELP STEEL STRIKERS

Fitzpatrick Goes to Washington to Make an Appeal to Federation of Labor.

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—Plans for tying up all the railroad transportation facilities of the United States were discussed today at a conference between John H. Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national committee in charge of the steel strike, and the presidents of the four railroad brotherhoods.

The brotherhoods will be asked to call out all members handling cars used for the shipment of the steel from the mills under strike ban.

Fitzpatrick said the strikers were "martialling their forces for victory." "We've got 'em," he said with a grin, "and all organized labor is going to help us hold 'em. We are starting to feed the strikers and their families. Other unions are contributing generously."

Fitzpatrick also said he had come to Washington to ask the government to send troops to Pennsylvania to supplant the state police. He will also confer with the executive council of the American Federation of Labor, and request again that it issue a general appeal to affiliated bodies to help the strikers by contributions.

The strike leader charged the steel corporations "were manufacturing propaganda" in the strike district. "This publicity bureau," he said, "is importing red literature by the ton in the strike district, and sending emissaries into our meetings to pose as revolutionists and stir up trouble."

"Labor does not care what this conference does," Fitzpatrick said. "We didn't expect much from the conference and we didn't get much. We'll go ahead and win our strike anyhow."

TO OPEN COMMISSARIES

(International News Service.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 21.—Indications that the steel strike leaders believe that the strike will be of long duration were seen today when it became known that commissary stores for the relief of the strikers are to be opened throughout the Pittsburgh district. Robert McKitchin, president of the Central State Cooperative society, was here today arranging for the opening of the stores.

PLAN RETURN OF ROADS TO OWNERS ON JANUARY 1ST

(International News Service.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—Despite the tangled status of the railroad legislation in congress, plans to return the railroads to their private owners in January 1 are going steadily ahead, it was learned at the railroad administration.

Officials of the railroad administration stated that they were making their plans in accordance with the statement of President Wilson in his message of May 20 that the railroads would be returned at the end of the calendar year. Director General Hines has publicly expressed his belief that federal control would cease on January 1.

NOTED SINGER IS FOUND DEAD; EMPTY BOTTLES ON THE FLOOR

Edward C. Powell Dies in Room at Birmingham Hotel Under Mysterious Circumstances

(International News Service.)
BIRMINGHAM, Oct. 21.—Edward C. Powell, noted singer and music teacher of Birmingham and former choir master of the Church of the Advent, was found dead in a room at the Tutwiler hotel Tuesday morning under mysterious circumstances, which caused John R. T. Rives, assistant coroner, to institute immediate investigation.

Rives said he received a call about 8 o'clock Tuesday morning and going to the hotel and entering the room occupied by Powell, he found and two other men in a semi-stupefied condition. These men were, according to the coroner: J. B. Lee, of Green Springs and Houston Bailey, of this city. Several bottles, bearing the label bromidia, were found in the room and one 3 ounce bottle bore the label 10 per cent alcohol. It is the opinion of Rives that the men drank the liquid.

Prof. Powell has been associated with musical interests of the city for more than 20 years and was well known here. It was he, who developed Reed Miller. He brought him out and he later became one of the great tenors in the world.

FROM HIS BEDSIDE WILSON APPEALS TO DELEGATES; URGED REMAIN IN SESSION

Communication Was Addressed to Secretary Lane to Be Made Public.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS PHRASE BORROWED

Its Use Caused Adjournment While Labor Group Holds a Caucus

(International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—President Wilson has dictated a message to the industrial conference, it was learned at the White House today.

The letter was addressed to Secretary Lane, chairman of the conference, and gives the President's views on the conference situation.

President Wilson dictated the letter from his bed and signed it with a lead pencil. It was understood to be a personal letter to Secretary Lane joining an appeal that the conference remain in session until some definite action has been taken on the great suggestions pending. The letter, it was understood, was to be laid before the conference at the discretion of Secretary Lane.

TAKES A RECESS

The conference was called to order at 10:20 and took a recess until 1 o'clock at the request of the labor group.

The public group came to the morning session with a new resolution, which they decided to try to force upon the employers. In this resolution five words are taken directly from the labor clause of the league of nations. These words are "Representatives of its own choosing."

The labor group asked for a recess because they wanted to consider the new resolution, which had been prepared by the public group. During he recess, it was suggested that perhaps the league of nations rule might prevent the conference from going on he rocks.

The labor men felt that if the employees should be put in the light of refusing to vote for a phrase taken directly from the league of nations covenant they would appear to be voting against a clause of the world's law.

Loonor Loree presented a resolution which provided that the conference recommend a form of industrial insurance by which employees could take out policies in units of $500 against loss of wages by sickness, lock-outs, accidents, old age, unemployment and death.

J. P. TODD SPEAKS ON SAFETY FIRST

J. P. Todd, divisional director, of the safety first department of the railroad administration, spoke to a large audience of shopmen yesterday afternoon, in encouragement of all rail workers' efforts to reduce the number of accidents while at work in the shops or on the trains. The occasion of the visit of Mr. Todd, is the fact that the local shops are now in the midst of their two weeks drive to prevent all accidents for the remainder of October.

At the request of C. W. Matthews, chairman of the safety first committee, C. A. Ellner, a member of the committee from the machinists introduced Mr. Todd. In the course of his remarks Mr. Ellner stated that up to the minute the local shops had a clear record of 100% no accidents. It was explained however that it was just possible that one accident which had happened to foreman H. S. Roberts, might turn out to be a "reportable accident."

It was also explained that no accident was reported according to a ruling of the interstate commerce commission, unless the one hurt should be away from his work for a period of three days.

Mr. Todd proved to be an able and interesting speaker.

FORWARD LOOKING PROSPERITY DEMANDS MORE THAN MONEY VALUE

If the Twin Cities are to continue uninterruptedly their progress of the last ten years, some definite plans should be laid and executed outside of mere plans for material prosperity. Of course in the kind of world in which we live, material wealth must remain very important. In fact wealth is the solid basis of advancement in all lines of endeavor. There should be no let up in business enterprise and not a single work day should pass in which the largest effort possible should not be made. But aside from these things and beyond them, all citizens of this community should be looking forward to larger opportunities in educational matters. While there is ample means at hand for acquiring information, such as the city schools for the children, the library and social clubs for the women, and all the books and periodicals necessary to inform the men on any subject, it remains too true that we have practically no means by which we can infuse inspiration and zest into intellectual pursuits. There is not even the old fashioned debating society, in which our forefathers while still in the country districts cultivated their minds and their power to think on their feet. It is quite possible that cities like these have outgrown the debating society, but have we anything to take its place? The nearest approach we have to the debating societies are the several lodges, unions and brotherhoods that meet from week to week. The training these societies give in intellectual development and in preparation for good citizenship are of high value. And there is the Y. M. C. A. and the large program it proposes. If the citizenship would but use its privileges to the full that institution would mean much for larger development. We would not underestimate the many privileges and opportunities afforded by the many societies and organizations of the Twin Cities, but it is not true that our present situation as regards opportunities for intellectual development leaves much to be desired? How would it do in addition to the further development of our city school systems, for all hands to get together in an effort to bring one or more first class finishing schools here, and possibly a small college could be located. There is hardly a centre of population anywhere so large as the Twin Cities that does not have one or more such institutions. While we are seeking to locate industries that will turn out dollars how would it do to go after educational institutions whose business it is to turn out finished men and women?

NECK AND NECK RACE IN HIGH LIVING COST

Figures are said to be veracious, just as George Washington was. If so, statistics made public by the U. S. Department of Labor must be accepted at their face value. They must also be accepted as casting some light upon the high cost of living problem.

The government experts have gone on record as declaring that the cost of living has increased 75 per cent since 1913. During that period the wages paid 2,500,000 employees in eleven industries have advanced from 51 to 121 per cent.

Pay of steel workers, who are now on strike, has advanced 121 per cent. This is the greatest advance reported.

Pay of employees of cotton factories has increased 79 per cent. Pay of employees of hosiery factories has increased 84 per cent.

Pay of employees of silk goods factories has increased 91.

And so on through the list to the cigar makers, whose pay envelopes are only 52 per cent fatter than they were before the Kaiser started the world war.

The facts, as thus marked in plain figures, prove conclusively that wages advance in proportion to the cost of living. If every laboring man should secure an additional raise of 100 per cent in wages, the cost of living would mount just exactly that much higher. It is a neck and neck race, in which the public is getting the hot end of the bargain. The clerks, office holders, the middle class in general, the salaried people in particular, are the innocent bystanders.

If being thorough about it means anything, Mr. Palmer may be counted on to make a success of his campaign against the profiteer.

According to a number of exchanges cities galore throughout the country limits so as to show up right on the 1920 federal census. Will Albany and Decatur go them all one better and take each other in before the 1920 census?

It is interesting to note how many are ready to acclaim Franklin K. Lane as splendid presidential timber, especially when they know perfectly well that he came out of the forests of Canada and is therefore ineligible to the office.

JUST IN PASSING

VERY LITTLE RESPECT

"I have followed the courts for a number of years," said D. M. Carr, popular court reporter, "but I believe the funniest incident I ever saw occur within a courtroom happened in a little Arkansas town. The county boasted an attorney of the typical 'colonel' type, tall, dignified, witty but a fire-eater in the courtroom. The same county boasted a very brilliant judge, who, unfortunately had been in ill health a number of years causing him to be very disagreeable at times. On one occasion the attorney had a case before the judge and was attempting to make an extended legal plea for his client. The judge grew impatient and stopped the lawyer. 'I have already made up my mind,' he said. The attorney demurred and again sought an opportunity to continue his address but the court still refused. The attorney became so insistent, the judge turned to the clerk and ordered: 'Mr. Clerk. Enter a fine of $50 for contempt of court against this gentleman.'

"The enraged attorney felt in his pockets and after diligent search managed to find $50 in currency, which he paid. Then taking his hat and lawbooks, he started toward the door. Just as he reached there, he turned and looking back at the judge said: 'Judge, you fined me $50 for contempt of court, but if you were to fine me in proportion to the contempt I feel, there isn't enough money in the United States treasury to pay it off.'

MARKETS ARE BARE

"The eastern markets are bare," said W. H. Aycock, local wholesale dry-goods dealer, who returned last night from New York. "The manufacturers are not getting the production they anticipated and the mills and agents are out of practically all of the staples. I never saw the market so inadequate to meet the requirements. Good gingham are scarce and going higher. There are not enough of men's shirts to go around. Apparently every man who returned from the army bought shirts and the production hasn't kept up with the consumption. A representative of a large Atlanta wholesale house was talking to me about the shirt situation. He said he had been unable to buy any shirts at all. I was very glad to inform him I had a fairly large stock on hand and do you know, he tried to buy them from me."

TRENTON LADY TELLS FACTS OF SON'S CASE

MOTHER PRAISES TRUTONA FOR REMARKABLE RELIEF IT GAVE HER BOY.

TRENTON, Tenn., Oct. 20.—Milton R. Ingram, a well known farmer residing in Second street, has found great relief in Trutona and it is with pride that his mother details his benefits.

"My son had suffered from constipation and dizzy spells for at least four years," Mrs. Ingram said.

"I had been reading of Trutona in the local papers and finally bought a bottle for him. My son has been taking Trutona for the past ten days now and his improvement has been remarkable. Milton came in town from the farm the other day and told me how much Trutona was helping him. He has been greatly relieved of the dizzy spells and his bowels are more regular than they have been. In general, too, he feels greatly improved. I'm glad to recommend Trutona to people who suffer as my son formerly did."

Mrs. Ingram's statement rings with a sincerity that cannot be doubted and, backed by her reputation as a highly respected woman it will no doubt convince many of Trutona's remarkable merits. As a combatant of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, Trutona is peerless. It has proven equally efficient as a reconstructive agency, system purifier and body invigorant.

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Decatur by Decatur Drug Co., and in Albany by Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co. The L. S. DuBois, Sons & Co., wholesale distributors of Trutona in this territory.

Camel CIGARETTES

18 cents a package

Smokers realize that the value is in the cigarettes and do not expect premiums or coupons!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

If you want to know what rare and unusual enjoyment Camels provide smoke them in comparison with any cigarette in the world at any price!

CAMELS are a cigarette revelation any way you consider them! Take quality, or refreshing flavor and fragrance; or, that wonderful mellow-mild-smoothness you never before got in a cigarette smoke! Yet Camels are so full-bodied and so full-of-satisfaction you marvel that so much delight could be put into a cigarette!

Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos makes them so irresistibly appetizing! And, the blend explains why it is possible for you to smoke Camels liberally without tiring your taste! You will prefer Camels to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You'll realize pretty quick, too, that among the many reasons you smoke Camels is their freedom from any unpleasant cigarette aftertaste or unpleasant cigarette odor!

Once you know Camels you won't take much stock in premiums, coupons or gifts! You'll prefer Camel quality!

BALD HEADS AT PEACE TABLE

Many Diplomats Had Whiskers and Mustaches, but Lacked Hair on Their Craniums.

An amusing sidelight on the recent peace conference at Versailles is thrown by a correspondent, who not only reported the proceedings proper, but took notes regarding the hair, mustaches, beards and whiskers of the peace-makers.

Two-thirds of the delegates were more or less bald. Perhaps some of them made up for this by wearing mustaches. Out of 65 men who sat round the peace table, all had mustaches but 14.

Whiskers, on the other hand, were not popular. Only three people wore them, and by a curious coincidence the names of all these three people began with V. They were Venizelos of Greece, Vandervelde of Belgium and Vassitch of Serbia. The latter's whiskers were particularly prominent.

In regard to dress, there was less formal attire than one might have imagined. The English paid no special attention to dress. High hats and frock-coats, once a combination that would never have been sanctioned, were quite popular; but there were some countries which put all they knew into their attire. These were, notably, the Japanese, and some of the South American states.

The New Age.

A pretty Philadelphia girl at a Newport dance wore a rose-colored gown of the new "bareback" fashion.

Very décolleté in front, the gown's bodice in the rear opened in a broad V almost to the waist. There were no sleeves to the rose-colored gown; on the contrary it was cut out under the arms like the jerseys worn by athletes. It had, to be sure, a dainty wisp of a train, but nevertheless the flimsy skirt was so exiguous that as the girl whirled about the ballroom to the wild strains of the jazz band it was frequently possible to see that her garters had ruby buckles.

A Philadelphia matron said to George Gould as the girl floated past: "Joan is a lovely creature, but all her interests are wrapped in clothes." "Evidently her interests only, ma'am," said Mr. Gould with a cynical smile.

Please, Doctor, Make Us Pretty! Dr. Seymour Oppenheimer of New York writes to the Medical Record expressing the hope that the long strides made in what is called "cosmetic" surgery during the war may not be lost to the civil population.

He says that this surgery for the sole purpose of beautifying ugly persons was always considered "rather a shady business" in which no reputable surgeon would engage.

But there are so many ugly faces and their beautification would make their owners happy, some surgeon the richer by a fee, and the world at large happier for not being obliged to look at ugliness, that this is the auspicious moment for taking cosmetic surgery out of the hands of charlatans and quacks and putting it into those of skilled practitioners.

A Drawback.

Jacob Ruppert, the New York brewer, told at a luncheon a story about a war profiteer.

"He gave a dinner one night," said Mr. Ruppert, "and when his wife entered the drawing room he was astonished to see her in a very décolleté dinner gown—no sleeves, very low in the front, and lower still in the back. His wife had never worn a décolleté gown before and the profiteer stared at her in bewilderment.

"Well," she said, "don't you like it? Don't you like this Paris confection, darling?" "Sure I like it," said the profiteer, "but what I want to know is, honey, where the dickens are you going to tuck your napkin?"

She Had a Different Ambition. When William Wilberforce, the reformer, was a candidate for parliament his sister, an amiable and witty young lady, offered the compliment of a new gown to each of the wives of those freemen who voted for her brother, on which she was saluted with a cry of "Miss Wilberforce forever!" when she pleasantly observed: "I thank you, gentlemen, but I cannot agree with you; for really I do not wish to be Miss Wilberforce forever!" —Boston Post.

Buck Hares in Combat. An Australian correspondent describes "a dinkum stand-up fight" between buck hares. "They prop upright on their hind legs and box with their front paws, sparring, ducking, uppercutting in pugilistic fashion, fur flying in all directions. When one pugilist gets winded or passed out he falls on his back and skies his tail."

SINGAPORE TO HAVE TAXIS

Far Eastern City Will Abandon the Rickshaw, Long Used as Method of Transportation.

According to advices from Consul General Edwin N. Gonzales at Singapore, that city is to have an internal transportation system of thoroughly modern taxicabs.

Whether American automobile manufacturers will secure the order for these motors is problematical, but the most significant part of the news is that it marks a further development of the use of modern methods in the far East.

For several years in Singapore there has been a most consistent and vigorous agitation against the institution of the well-known rickshaws. Most of this agitation came from the tongue and pen of the educated Chinese, who maintain that the system of making a horse out of men is wrong from the standpoint of the degrading influence which it has on the individuals as well as the harm it is claimed to work upon the coolies.

Distances are great in most far Eastern cities, and while the rickshaw makes transportation reasonably convenient and comfortable, the rickshaw most certainly is a primitive vehicle and doomed to early abandonment because of the rapid advance now being made in the industrial and social life of the far East.

The new company to operate in Singapore is to be officially known as the Singapore Motor Taxicab and Transport company, Ltd., and will have capital of $350,000. The initial equipment will be made up of 40 landauet taxicabs, five one-ton trucks and five three-quarter ton trucks. Singapore has a population of 300,000.

HIGH PRICES FOR DIAMONDS

Value of the Highly Desired Sparklers Has Been Soaring to Unheard-of Heights.

The economic situation of the world at large is said by jewelers to be more responsible for the present high prices of diamonds than any shortage of diamonds in the South African mines or any manipulation of the output by the De Beers Diamond company.

The following figures concerning diamond prices were obtained from Antwerp, the European center of the diamond market. An uncut diamond before the war cost $23 a carat and $32 after cutting. Immediately after the declaration of war, the price slumped. In 1915 the Germans began to get nervous regarding the value of paper money and started buying all the diamonds they could find.

France, Switzerland, Italy and England followed suit and the price went up rapidly. On the eve of the armistice, an uncut carat diamond was worth $70. Since the war ended, the diamond market has boomed, owing to the depreciation of European money, the difficulty of exchange and the embargo on the export of currency from one European nation to another. Today a carat of uncut stone finds a ready market at $150.

The Antwerp merchants no longer seek customers. The market is swamped with buyers. Credit is no longer given. The sales are for cash. The buyer frequently resells and the new purchaser sells again at fat profits. Thus the price keeps going up. Large stones are snapped up at unheard-of prices.

The Correct Word.

Joe's Use of Brother Agent's Headgear, to Say the Least, Had Not Improved It.

Attorney General Palmer instructed the New York branch of the department of justice recently to gather all the German propaganda evidence it had accumulated to prosecute enemy aliens during the war and forward it to Washington, where it could be stored in the state department vaults. The books, papers and documents were placed in a wooden case five feet high, four feet wide and two feet deep, which was put in a special baggage car accompanied by two special agents of the department.

One of the agents became tired of sitting watching the case and said he would take a nap on it. He turned the case over on its side and laid down on it, using his handbag as a pillow, while the other laid on the floor of the car alongside the big box. In the morning Special Agent Joe, who slept on the box, awoke and found Agent Bill searching all through the car for something. He asked what he had lost and Bill said that he certainly had a hat when he entered the car but it was missing. They could not find the hat and finally turned the case right end up and there lay Agent Bill's new fall derby under it mashed perfectly flat. Tableau.

Aged Resident Has Narrow Escape

"I was at my work, my limbs became numb, I got dizzy and faint, my ears seemed stopped up. I had been troubled with gas on my stomach and severe bloating after meals. Doctors failed to help me. One dose of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, recommended by the corner druggist, proved a life-saver to me. I am continuing with it with splendid results." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. THOUGHT

Ingratitude, my Lord, is a nail which driven into the tree of courtesy causes it to wither; it is a broken channel by which the foundations of the affections are undermined; and a lump of soot, which, falling into the dish of friendship, destroys its scent and flavor.—Basil.

THE FREEMAN.

He is the freeman whom the truth makes free.
And all are slaves besides. There's not a chain
That hellish foes, confederate for his harm,
Can wind around him; but he casts it off,
With as much ease as Samson his green withes,
He looks abroad into the varied field
Of Nature, and though poor, perhaps, compared
With those whose mansions glitter in his sight,
Calls the delightful scenery all his own;
His are the mountains, and the valleys his
And the resplendent rivers. His to enjoy
With a propriety that none can feel
But who, with filial confidence inspired,
Can lift to Heaven an unpresuming eye,
And smiling say, "My Father made them all." —William Cooper.

WALKER-TILMAN.

Mrs. Alice Trimble Tilman announces the marriage of her daughter, Vivian, to Mr. Carl Preston Walker, of Houston, Texas, that was solemnized Monday at High Noon at the Parsonage of the First M. E. Church, Decatur, Rev. G. M. Davenport officiating.

The marriage was planned for a later date and the time advanced at the insistence of the groom, who arrived here on Sunday evening, and, his business demanding immediate attention the marriage was consummated at the earlier time in order to facilitate his arrival at his home at Houston, Texas. Several pre-nuptial entertainments had been planned for the bride, but the hurried ceremony precluded the possibility. A few friends were called together, who decorated the parsonage and at noon the beautiful and impressive ceremony took place in the presence of Mesdames R. E. Pearson, J. A. Wells, S. W. Irwin and the bride's mother. The bride was becomingly attired in a blue tricotlette, with harmonizing accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left immediately following the ceremony for New Orleans. A number of handsome presents were received by the bride, attesting the affection in which she is held. She is one of the most charming and accomplished young women of these cities. The groom is a successful cotton merchant.

SOCIAL SERVICECLASS COMPLIMENTED

Mrs. Binford Turner entertained the Social Service class of the Central M. E. church on Friday evening. The occasion was the election of officers. The following were elected for the year: Mrs. B. A. AROUND THE WORLD WITH THE AMERICAN RED CROSS.

The veritable mountains of relief supplies turned out by the millions of chapter workers during the war made the American Red Cross one of the biggest "manufacturing concerns" in the world, with great warehouse space at scores of strategic points all around the globe.

One of the biggest distribution centers was at Saloniki, Greece, and in this picture Bulgarian prisoners of war are seen there unloading a Red Cross cargo of 2,300 boxes from a French transport. At the right is seen one of the American Red Cross camions, fleets of which were used in rushing relief to points where the suffering was greatest.

"40" Has Conquered BLOOD POISON

Scrofulous eruptions, pimples on the face are both annoying and disfiguring. Why Air Cleaning is Best

The Royal Electric Cleaner is NOT a combination carpet sweeper and suction cleaner.

The Royal Electric Cleaner is so efficient that it does not need the aid of a brush or other mechanical means to get all the dirt. The powerful suction does the cleaning thoroughly. It cleans by air alone.

It is quite obvious that a strong current of air passing through a rug or other fabric will remove dirt without friction and consequently without wear.

The passage of air through a carpet can not harm it. After you have had your rugs cleaned, phone us to come out and let us show you what a Royal will do after your carpets have supposed to have been cleaned.

Born in 1839 Dr. Caldwell Still in His Office Daily

Wonderful vigor of the founder of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin.
Millions now use his famous prescription

ALL physicians know that good health depends largely upon proper digestion and elimination, and that most sickness results from these causes. None knows this better than the "family" doctor, the general practitioner.

Dr. W. B. Caldwell of Monticello, Illinois, was and is a family doctor. The whole human body, not any small part of it, was his practice. More than half his "calls" were on women, children and babies. They are the ones most often sick. But their illnesses were usually of a minor nature—colds, fevers, headaches, biliousness—and all of them required first a thorough evacuation. They were constipated.

Dr. Caldwell in the course of 40 years' practice, for he was graduated from Rush Medical College back in 1875, had found a good deal of success in such cases with a prescription of his own containing simple laxative herbs with pepsin. In 1892 he decided to use this formula in the manufacture of a medicine to be known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, and in that year the preparation was first placed on the market. The picture of Dr. Caldwell that appears on the package was taken in that year.

The preparation immediately had as great a success in the drug stores as it previously had in the doctor's private practice. Today the third generation is using it.

Mothers are giving it to their children who were given it by their mothers. Every second of the working day someone somewhere is going into a drug store to buy it, for Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is selling at the rate of over 6 million bottles a year.

Its great success is based on merit, on repeated buying, on one satisfied user telling another. There are thousands of homes in this country that are never without a bottle of Syrup Pepsin, and the formulator of that prescription is fortunately living to see its wonderful success.

Women, children and old people are the ones most benefited by Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It differs from physics in that its action is mild and gentle and free from griping. It does not weaken. And while it is promptly effective in the most obstinate case, it is safe for a tiny baby as it contains no narcotics.

Every drug store sells Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50c and $1 a bottle, the latter the family size and sufficient to last months. Keep a bottle in your home. Where many live someone is sure to need it quickly.

DR. W. B. CALDWELL TODAY

Born Shelbyville, Mo., March 27, 1839.

Began the manufacture of his famous prescription in 1892.

In spite of the fact that Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world, there being over 6 million bottles sold each year, many who need its benefits have not yet used it.

If you have not, send your name and address for a free trial bottle to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 311 Washington St., Monticello, Illinois.

AZORES AT A STANDSTILL

Population Has Shown Little Change
In Last Century—Trade in Sugar and Tobacco

The population of the Azores is about 245,000, the number of inhabitants having changed but little in the last century, and, if anything, having diminished. This fact is probably due more to various political and social conditions than to climatic, agricultural, or other conditions of the islands. In the early days the Portuguese literally "raised cane" on the islands, and established a large sugar trade with England and other countries. Tobacco and fruits were also produced in great quantities, but, with the discovery and settlement of Brazil and other South American countries, Portugal rather discouraged production in the Azores in order to aid her colonies in South America. With the sugar and tobacco trade snatched from them, the Azoreans began the cultivation of the vine, and the making of wine and other liquors became one of the chief industries of the islands. The population consists mainly of Portuguese, Moorish, and Flemish settlers, with a few negroes and a fair sprinkling of English settlers.

Novel Apartment Building.

A San Francisco woman realty operator has planned a novel building. Her idea is to utilize a steep bluff 350 feet high. On it she proposes to erect a series of apartments running in staircase fashion from the street down to the water of San Francisco bay.

It is proposed to have each apartment equipped with its own elevator entrance, pergola and roof garden, with a glass-covered inclined elevator connecting all with the private wharf for fishing and boating. Other features projected are a specially warmed sea-water bathing tank and glass inclosed and a heated playground for children on the beach. Steam heat, hot water, laundry, garage, billiard, club and ball rooms are to be provided as matters of course. The site commands a fine view of the Golden Gate and the sea outside, according to the prospectus, and it is said the apartments, which will rent at a prohibitive (for most of us) price, are already under lease, even before the building has been started.—Kansas City Star.

COMMUNITY FAIR IS GREAT SUCCESS

By ERNEST CARNES
County Farm Agent.

On last Thursday and Friday a Community Fair and Extension School was held at Ryan's under the direction of the Community Club, County Agent and Extension forces from Auburn. Ryan community is made up of a group of progressive men, women, boys and girls, who cooperated in holding one of the best community fairs ever held in North Alabama, being one of the first to be held in the county. A large attendance was had on all occasions.

The Boys' Pig Club contest was held during the fair which showed that these boys had made an excellent record for this year. All the pigs exhibited were registered except one, Cecil Crawford won the first prize which is to be a pure bred pig. All the other boys in the contest were awarded prizes. Cash prizes totaling $24 were given by men of the community. Other excellent pigs, calves, and cows were shown.

The agricultural exhibit was a creditable one, indeed, practically all crops being represented. The ladies' department of fancy work and canned fruits was a surprise to all comparing favorably with the county fair. The room was nicely decorated and well arranged, giving special credit to this special committee. Dinner was served on the ground both days.

A game was played by Ryan and Arab. On Thursday lunches were sold, the proceeds going to the School Improvement Association and on Friday a free dinner was given which would have been relished by kings and queens. After dinner cakes carrying the ribbons were sold at auction bringing about $20, the proceeds going for equipment for the domestic science room.

A Boys' Corn Club judging contest was held, the winner of which was Wellmer Lamons who was awarded a prize of $1.00. Educational addresses made by G. W. Peck, Prof. J. M. Crowell, Prin. Morgan County High School, and Supt. J. C. Tidwell were inspirational and enjoyed by all present. A demonstration in orchard work was given. Lectures on seed selection, fertilizers, stock judging and other phases of farming were given.

A special feature of the fair was a moving picture shown on Thursday night illustrating the life history of the house fly and on modern dairying. On Friday afternoon a basket ball

Safe Light for Miners.
Nowadays the up-to-date miner carries a package of electricity about him while underground. It is a small storage battery attached to the back of his belt, and is connected by a cord with a lamp fastened to the front of his cap. The lamp, provided with a reflector, throws quite a flood of light in front of the miner. But its chief advantage is absolute safety. In older days miners (who must, of course, have light) carried about with them open-flame lamps. These caused innumerable disastrous accidents through ignition of coal dust or gases. Sir Humphry Davy's invention of a safety lamp whose flame was protected by a wire gauze saved an immense number of lives. It is in common use today, but the electric mine lamp is better and more convenient.

Death Took Old and Young.
During the war the London Times, either wittingly or unwittingly, published innumerable items about the very old men and women in the British empire who were dying off. Their great age, their longevity, formed a melancholy contrast to the slaughter of youth then going on in Europe. During six months in 1918, 312 persons over one hundred years old died in the British Isles, but the figures of young men who fell during that time before the guns of the enemy and who died with influenza mounted toward a million. Not one of the old, he it said in passing, died from "flu."

Curious Collection of Pens.
In the prison at Lyons, France, there is a curious collection of pens. They are the pens with which the executioners signed the regulation receipts for the prisoners handed over to them to be guillotined. At each execution a fresh pen is used for the purpose and the ink is left to dry upon it.

ONLY WAY ASPIRIN SHOULD BE TAKEN

Look for Name "Bayer" on Tablets and Follow Directions in Package.

The Bayer Company, who introduced Aspirin tell in their careful directions in each package of genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" that to get best results one or two glasses of water should be drunk after taking tablets.

"Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" to be genuine must be marked with the safety "Bayer Cross." Then you are getting the world-famous Aspirin, prescribed by physicians for over eighteen years.

Each unbroken "Bayer" package contains proper directions for Colds, Headache, Toothache, Earache, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Rheumatism, Neuritis, and for Pain generally.

Handy tin boxes of twelve tablets cost but a few cents. Druggists also sell larger "Bayer" packages. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer Manufacture of Monoaceticacidester of Salicylicacid.—Advertisement.

TRACK INSPECTOR NOW FEELS LIKE BOY OF TWENTY

His Stomach Was So Sore He Couldn't Fasten His Vest—Feet Were Numb and He Had Headaches.

Mr. Samuel B. Davis, a track inspector for the Scotch Lumber Company, Clark County, Alabama, says: "Before I began taking Sulfero-Sol I was what you might call a physical wreck. Now I feel like a boy of twenty. When I commenced taking this wonderful remedy I had been in a jaded condition for a long time. My health was run down, my stomach was in a bad shape and I could not digest my food. My stomach was so sore I could hardly button my vest. My feet and legs were numb most of the time. I would wake up with cramps at night and I was continually troubled with headaches. My feet and hands would break out with scaly blisters. Since I began taking Sulfero-Sol these troubles have been entirely stopped and I feel like a boy of twenty, although I am more than twice that age. I think it is a miracle the way it has built up my health and relieved my pains and suffering."

Sulfero-Sol relieves diseases of the stomach and digestive system. Dyspepsia and indigestion respond to it. It produces astounding results in cases of Rheumatism, Uric acid poisoning, Eczema and other diseases of the skin, blood and nerves.

If you are afflicted with any of these troubles you should get a bottle of Sulfero-Sol from your druggist at once.

$1.00 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5.00. Sulfero-Sol Co., Montgomery, Ala.

FAMILY MARKED BY ODDITY

London Newspaper Tells of Strange Fate That Pursued Group—Both Life and Death.

There lived at Ipswich in the reign of William III a family known as the "odd family," a most appropriate name, as the following facts prove, London Answers states:

Every event, good, bad or indifferent, came to that family in an odd year or an odd day of the month, and every person was odd in manner or behavior or appearance. Even the letters of their Christian names always amounted to an odd number.

The father and mother were Peter and Rahab; their seven children (all boys) bore the names of David, Ezekiel, James, Jonas, Matthew, Roger and Solomon. The husband possessed only one leg and his wife only one arm; Solomon was blind in his left eye and Roger lost his right in an accident; James had his left ear torn off in a quarrel. Matthew's left hand had but three fingers.

Jonas had a stump foot, David was humpbacked and Ezekiel was 6 feet 2 inches at the age of nineteen. Every one of the children had red hair, notwithstanding the fact that the father's hair was jet black and the mother's white.

Strange at birth, all died, as strangely. The father fell into a deep sawpit and was killed, the wife died five days after from starvation. Ezekiel enlisted, was wounded in 23 places, but recovered. Roger, James, Jonas, David and Matthew died in 1713 in six different places on the same day; Solomon and Ezekiel were drowned in the Thames in 1723.

Recall Legends of Hawaii

Two Idols, Recently Unearthed, Bring to Memory Folklore Tales Almost Lost to Memory.

Of the two old Hawaiian idols lately found concealed in the earth at Hookupu, Paohkhalo, one, a female idol, is in a fairly good state of preservation. The idol is supposed to be that of Ki-hawahine, the Undine of Maui myths. Her haunts are the springs at Paohkhalo, the Kaunua pond, and the matchless pools in the wooded glens around Piholo, Makawao.

The legends about her compare with those of the German fairy folklore, and around the charms of her person as she sits combing her wealth of golden tresses at the edge of some bathing pool is woven many a half-forgotten Maui folk tale.

In some of the latest ones she is reputed to have lured two haoles at different times on a merry chase only to see her disappear in one or another of the deep, clear-water pools among the wooded glens of Piholo. One, a doctor, ended his aimless wanderings to her glenwood haunts by becoming a paralytic, the other, a woodcutter, never ceased to describe the charms of this "wonderful woman with the golden hair," always able to elude his embrace, but ever beckoning him on to her lair among the vines and trees and pools and crags of the glens about Piholo.—Walluku (H. L.) Times.

The Cynical Actress. The late Oscar Hammerstein believed that the actresses should lead a pure life.

"Cynical, disillusioned actresses are no good," he once said at a dinner. "I remember an actress of mine some years ago who fell down badly in a part I'd given her. 'Look here,' I said the morning after she fell down, 'all the critics say you don't show half enough emotion in the scene where your husband leaves you never to return.' 'The cynical, disillusioned creature gave a tart laugh. 'Oh, I don't, don't I?' she sneered. 'Well, look here, Mr. Hammerstein, I've had six husbands leave me never to return, and I guess I know how much emotion ought to be shown in such circumstances as well as anybody.'"

Oldest Writing. The British museum contains the oldest known examples of Chinese writing, in the form of inscriptions on animals' bones.

MR. DODSON WARNS USERS OF CALOMEL

Says Drug Acts Like Dynamite on Liver and You Lose a Day's Work.

There's no reason why a person should take sickening, salivating calomel when a few cents buys a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic—a perfect substitute for calomel. It is a pleasant, vegetable liquid which will start your liver just as surely as calomel, but it doesn't make you sick and can't salivate. Children and grown folks can take Dodson's Liver Tonic, because it is perfectly harmless. Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of Dodson's Liver Tonic instead and you will wake up feeling great. No more biliousness, constipation, sluggishness, headache, coated tongue or sour stomach. Your druggist says if you don't find Dodson's Liver Tonic acts better than horrible calomel your money is waiting for you.—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

"LEAVE IT TO JANE" AT MASONIC WEDNESDAY

One of the most interesting announcements that has been made in a long, long time, by the management of the Masonic theatre is that arrangements have been completed with F. Ray Comstock and Morris Gest for an engagement of their brilliant musical comedy success "Leave It To Jane." The date is Wednesday, October 22.

"Leave It To Jane" is a sprightly, breezy, musical comedy, tripping and carolling lightly to gay tunes by Jerome Kern, America's most popular composer. The music is of the sort that one whistles and sings. The book and lyrics are by Guy Bolton and P. G. Wodehouse. "Leave It To Jane" has been unanimously declared by newspaper critics in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Boston to be the best musical comedy ever offered on the English speaking stage, and its presentation here is certain to prove one of the delights of the year.

Regulating Immigration.

Until 1882 congress did not make any law restricting foreign immigration. On the other hand, everything was done to encourage immigration without regard to its character or quality. In 1882 a law was made excluding escaped convicts, idiots and persons likely to become a public charge. Since then laws have been passed excluding persons afflicted with any dangerous contagious diseases, persons guilty of serious crime in their native country, anarchists, paupers and professional beggars. Foreigners deterred by law are sent back to the country from which they came. During 1916 the report of the commissioner of immigration shows 5,256 aliens, morally, mentally or physically below the standard were returned, 4,237 of whom were debarred from entering, the remainder having been arrested and expelled.

To Breed Rabbits for Their Fur.

An organization known as the Beaver club has been formed in London, England, to breed rabbits for their fur. The scheme is being run on co-operative lines.

The blue Bevers and the Havana rabbits are the strain which the club intends to rear. The fur of the blue Bevers is of lavender blue and is long, lustrous, fine and silky. That of the Havana is of a rich chocolate color and is thick, fairly long and fine.

It is hoped to produce from these rabbits natural furs the color of which will not fade.

Women Build Roads.

Five hundred Armenian women employed by the American Red Cross have built 100 miles of stone roads and reconstructed several steel bridges in this section within the last four months, an Associated Press dispatch from Marash, Mesopotamia, says. The roads were rebuilt in order to facilitate transportation of Red Cross supplies. There were no male laborers to be employed, so Capt. Edward Bickel of Seattle, who had charge of the engineering work, engaged the women, who were glad to have employment of any kind.

REVENGE TAKEN BY ANIMALS

Story on Record of Huge Mastiff That Killed Thoughtless Groom at First Opportunity.

Careful observers have put on record some very extraordinary instances of dogs and other animals which have retaliated injuries put upon them, and have eventually retaliated, says London Answers.

There is a terrible story on record of a dog, a huge mastiff, kept as a watchdog by a Staffordshire gentleman. The great brute was kept chained to the stable yard, and during the very hot weather one of the grooms, noticing the creature panting with heat, threw a bucket of cold water over him.

A week later the dog was loose when the same man entered the yard. He sprang upon him and caught him by the throat and killed him.

A touching little episode happened a few years ago in a Worcester village. A boy was the proud owner of a very handsome pair of fox terriers, named Mick and Jerry. Jerry went off one day into a wood near by and tackled a badger, which killed him. Raymond, his master, went out to look for him, but could not find him. But two days after Mick was found mourning over the dead body of his companion.

He was brought back. One day he did not return. His master searched and found him lying dead, his teeth in the throat of the badger, which was also killed.

An amusing incident was that of an Indian elephant whose revenge on a new mahout whom he took a dislike to was rather funny. He picked him up and deposited him in the branches of a thorn tree.

Credit Out of Favor.

A detail of colored engineers who were working on the roads in the vicinity of Bouc were growling at the long hours, the scarce meals and the back pay. The sergeant, to comfort them, said: "But think of all the credit you got." "Ye-ah," came the answer. "Dat's all we do get—credit. Nevah see no cash around heah."—American Legion Weekly.
